The first of these is the fact that the number of people who are employed in the service of the government is increasing rapidly. This is due to the fact that the government is expanding its activities in many fields, and is therefore requiring more and more people to work for it.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document, spanning the width of the page. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly discolored paper. The script is dense and flowing, with many small, connected letters. There are two distinct circular marks, possibly holes or indentations, visible on the left side of the page. The overall appearance is that of a historical or archival document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into several lines. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive. There are two distinct circular marks or holes visible on the page, suggesting it was once part of a bound volume. The text is written in a dark ink, and the overall appearance is that of an old, well-preserved manuscript.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or a page from a manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is mostly illegible due to fading and the style of the handwriting. There are two distinct circular holes punched through the paper, one near the center and one towards the right side. The text appears to be organized into several lines, with some words being more legible than others. The overall appearance is that of an old, possibly historical, document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into several lines. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of early modern handwriting. There are two prominent dark circular marks, possibly holes or ink stains, on the page. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the formal nature of the script and the presence of what might be a signature or official stamp in the center.
